ATHENRY, CO. GALWAY

The award winning Athenry Heritage Centre is the ideal starting point to discover the best preserved medieval town in Ireland. Visitors both young and old can experience this history with interactive exhibits of weaponry, armour, dressing up in medieval costume and Have-A-Go Archery. The centre also displays the town's original 14th century Mace & Seal, the oldest of their kind in Ireland. The exhibits within the centre include the medieval dungeon, a replica street scene and storyboard information.

Have A Go Archery

Experience one of the oldest traditions in the world with the centre's exciting activity of Have A Go Archery. Fine tune your target skills with our fully trained archery instructors and discover the Robin Hood within us all.

Living History

The centre's 'Medieval Experience' provides an extra dimension with its medieval costumes. Become part of history and transport your self to a time of Kings, Queens, Knights and Serfs. The centre has a selection for all ages and it's the ideal photo opportunity to capture your visit to Athenry.

Family Fun Activities

Experience a great day out with a range of activities for all the family to enjoy.

Group Tours

The heritage centre provides an excellent educational tour which engages and encourages learning with the centre's 'Medieval Experience'. Discover history the fun way with friends, family or colleagues with a tour that is designed to suit your groups needs. Our activities are accessible and inclusive to all.

Birthday Parties

Let your son or daughter experience a birthday to remember at the Athenry Heritage Centre. We provide a unique service for parents looking for something different which is both fun and educational.
